

ICPMA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

June 14-16, 2020 New York, New York USA

GLOBAL CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT PERSPECTIVES FOR THE NEW DECADE

The International Construction Project Management Association (ICPMA) is a unique worldwide not-for-profit organization that spreads best practice in construction and project management throughout its membership. Initially founded in 2001 in Cannes, FRANCE, it is a modern and dynamic forum, providing opportunities to network with other professionals and academics, and to engage in new business and research on a global basis. Come join us this year in New York, USA to share knowledge and learn new perspectives.
